Summary of Information

The target contains a soft, natural aspect reminiscent of vegetation. There is a curved metal feature and a tall "X" which looms over other objects. There is white sand and a fluid, spinning motion reminiscent of a whirlpool or water spout. There is a pleasant water/cloud interface with a scene reminiscent of an oceanic sunset.

A manmade feature is associated with propulsion and loftiness. There are squares, parallel lines and objects reminiscent of crates. There is a feature which "ripples like a field of ripening wheat". Someone is concerned with "14 acres for sale".

An object flashes by in a long, curving sweeping motion. It's appearance is that of a "staccatoed tennis ball".
